

BBC NI buys Colossus V3s

Systems integrator TSL has installed dual Colossus V3 playout automation systems in separate sites in Belfast for BBC Northern Ireland. The two units, made by Omnibus Systems, are linked to provide back-up and redundancy in the event of failure or required maintenance at either facility. The dual Colossus system is based on four channels of playout capability and OmniBus G3 cache management and will play localised versions of BBC1 and BBC2.

Broadcast
1st August 2008