

TSL lands mediacity:uk deal

Peel chooses TSL as technical design consultants

By Fergal Ringrose

TSL has announced an important contract with Peel Land & Property Ltd, one of the UK's leading property and transport organisations, that will see TSL working as Technical Design Consultants for mediacity:uk.

mediacity:uk, will be situated at Manchester's Salford Quays on a 200 acre site and will be the UK's first purpose-built media city. It will provide an internationally significant hub for the media and creative industries, with the UK's leading broadcast, media and technology companies at its heart.

A key part of the project is the move of five departments of the BBC to mediacity:uk including BBC Children's, BBC Children's Learning, BBC Sport, BBC Radio Five Live, and parts of BBC Future Media and Technology.
